

Yakima Valley Private School Profile Pre-school thru High School

The Yakima Valley has a full range of private school options serving Pre-school through High School students. The following pages contain enrollment and contact information for all state-approved and other private schools in Yakima County.

Yakima County's public and private schools are supported by the Educational Service District 105 \(ESD 105\). Washington State has nine Educational Service Districts which provide K-12 schools valuable programs and support. To learn more about the role of ESD's in our region, click here.
