OVERVIEW: Mabton is located in the fertile Yakima Valley approximately 43 miles southeast of Yakima, Washington. Mabton School District maintains a vision to “engage people in rigorous, stimulating, and inviting learning experiences that result in all students graduating with the abilities to be successful in college, work, and life. We believe everyone can learn and achieve at high levels given appropriate instruction, support and relationships.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS: The school district currently has AVID elective sections in grade 8-11 with plans to expand to grade 7 and 12. The GEARUP program at Mabton currently offers services to two grade levels. Each grade level is a different grant, offering the same services. The programs provide services throughout the academic year and summer. The services range from college visits, career exploration, college fairs, tutorial services, college and financial aid application awareness and assistance and a summer program.
