OVERVIEW: The mission of Wapato Public Schools is “Preparing Students for Success in the Global Economy.” The District has a very dedicated staff of nearly 400 working towards that goal every day . Wapato Public Schools serve an average of about 3300 students a year at its 3-elementary schools (Camas, Satus & Adams), 1-Middle School and 2-High Schools (Wapato High & PACE). The District is proud of its culturally diverse student body. 69%-Hispanic, 24%-Native American, 4%-White and 3%-Asian. The schools, staff and students look for opportunities to celebrate that diversity whether it is the annual Cultural Unity Fair at the Middle School or Filipino Week at the High School. Quality public schools are part of the foundation to a thriving community. The Wapato School District is dedicated to the mission of preparing our students for success in the global economy and is committed to working with our students, families and community to improve learning experiences for our students.
